83RD CONGRESS NEARING ADJOURNMENT

Citizens' Committee of Rural Schools Meets To Organize Wednesday

The first meeting, for organizational purposes, of the newly appointed Citizens' Committee representing the rural and village school districts of Fayette County, was held Wednesday evening at the office of County Superintendent W. J. Hilly.

Election of officers was the first step taken and resulted in the naming of Herbert Hoppes, Wayne school district, as chairman; Jed Stuckey, Green district, vice-chairman and County Supt. Hilly as secretary.

The new Ohio school law which authorized the naming of the committee also states that the county superintendent, although not a member of the committee, and having no vote in the committee, actions, may be selected as secretary.

THE CITIZENS Committee is composed of nine members; it was chosen at a convention held last Friday evening, made up of one delegate from each rural school district and one from the county board of education.

The committee, which is to study the needs for, and to recommend proposals for any reorganization or merger of rural school districts within the county as it deems advisable, is composed of the following members: Edwin Buck, Concord; Jed Stuckey, Green; John Morgan, Jasper; Mrs. Mary Grim, Madison; Richard Snyder, Marion; Ray Rumer, Paint; Floyd Hoppes, Perry; Charles Burke, Union; Herbert Hoppes, Wayne.

This first meeting Wednesday evening, lasted for several hours and in addition to organization, discussed at some length its future duties and requirements. It is to meet at least once each month and may hold any special meetings found necessary.

THERE WERE SO many matters upon which the members indicated they needed to be informed that another meeting of the committee was set up for Friday evening this week at the same place.

It is said that there will be further information supplied at this next meeting and more discussion as to methods of procedure. It is possible also that a regular monthly meeting date also may be decided upon at that time.

Heroic Dog Gets Medal

CHICAGO (AP)—America's dog hero of heroes for 1954 is Tang, a Texas-owned collie that has saved four children from possible death.

The title, $1,000 in saving bonds, a gold medal, gold plaque, gold-plated leash and collar and a year's supply of dog food were given the 65-pound Tang last night by the manufacturer of a dog food, Quaker Oats Co.

On four different occasions Tang pushed children from the path of automobiles. Among those he saved were a son and daughter of Tang's owners, Air Force Capt. and Mrs. Maurice L. Dyer of Denison, Tex.

The award was presented by Chicago Fire Capt. Joseph J. McCarthy, who himself won the medal of honor as a Marine corps officer in World War II.

Doctor Arrested

COLUMBUS (AP)—Currency totaling $37,515 was found scattered throughout the home of a doctor arrested Tuesday on an abortion charge, federal agents reported yesterday.

They said the money was found in the home of Dr. William Henry Roche, 55, who pleaded innocent yesterday to performing an abortion on a 21-year-old woman. Bond was set at $5,000 as he was held to the grand jury. Internal Revenue agents said they impounded $25,000 of the sum, estimating that amount due in back taxes, interest and penalties.

President To Address World Church Assembly Delegates

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Charles P. Taft spoke up today for the American social and economic system before fellow Christians from many lands.

Taft, brother of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, voiced his views while delegates to the Assembly of the World Council of Churches were engaged in a round of discussions on the broad subject of a "responsible society."

"We Americans are a responsible society," Taft told an audience of visitors to the convention—a gathering of representatives of 163 denominations from 48 nations.

"I am not reciting these facts to boast but to show you that we are not, and probably never have been, a laissez-faire capitalism. In nearly all of this legislation and in its enforcement has been evidence of the strong reform instincts of America. It comes in FOUR TEEN-AGED Brooklyn boys are under arrest, charged with a series of "thrill" crimes including beating and kicking a man to death, throwing another into a river and horsewhipping two 16-year-old girls. The boys, who allegedly confessed, are (from left) Melvin Mittman, 17, Jerome Lieberman, 17, and Jack Koslow, 18. The fourth, Robert Trachtenberg, 15, called a juvenile delinquent, is not shown. Holding the whip the boys allegedly used is assistant district attorney Lewis Cohn. Seated at left is police stenographer Arthur Monford.

McCarthy Probes May Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate investigations involving Sen. McCarthy were threatened with schedule-upsetting delays today, but apparently not because of disputes over the controversial Wisconsin Republican.

Leaders of both Senate groups said the stumbling block was unexpectedly difficult work.

The Senate investigations subcommittee, which conducted the 36 days of McCarthy-Army hearings, just about gave up hope of reaching a verdict by the end of this week—the date Chairman Mundt (R-SD) had set.

And a special Senate committee headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) to study a proposed resolution of censure against McCarthy indicated it may have to postpone the start of public hearings beyond the scheduled premiere Aug. 30. McCarthy announced he would enter no protest against a deferred start.

Edward Bennett Williams, McCarthy's counsel, said, "We have no plans to ask for a continuance," but it would be "working

A&P Cuts Coffee Price

NEW YORK (AP)—The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., operator of 4,000 A&P stores across the country, has announced a 10-cent cut in retail coffee prices, effective today.

The announcement yesterday by the country's largest food chain was the first drop in coffee prices by a big nationwide distributor. Smaller firms began announcing price cuts Monday following a weekend easing of foreign exchange regulations by Brazil.

The A&P cut applies to all its coffee brands, bringing the price of Red Circle, 8 o'clock and Bokar labels down to $1.09. The three brands have been selling at a uniform price since June.

Yesterday, for the third day in a row, the price of coffee futures on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange dropped 2 cents a pound, the maximum reduction allowed in any single day's trading.

Trapped Trio Dies In Crash

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—Three men burned to death yesterday trapped inside a twin-engine private plane that crashed and burned near Cox Municipal Airport here half an hour after takeoff.

Witnesses who saw the plane spin, crash and burn included the pilot's father who came to the airport with his son.

The charred bodies were identified as Pilot John Shockley, 32, of Muncie, Ind., and two radio technicians who had gone up in the plane to install radio equipment.

They were Dale Hecker, 26, of Vandalia and Kenneth Lee Carroll, 23, of Rt. 1, West Milton.

Shockley's father, Clyde, is general manager of the Muncie Airport. Officials at the local airport said the father stayed after the crash to get complete details and then flew back to Muncie alone in a private plane.

EDC Foreign Ministers Glum After Hearing Mendes-France

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—French Premier Pierre Mendes-France, who wants to revamp the European Defense Community treaty, outlined his views of the continent's political aspects before foreign ministers of the five other prospective partners today.

BULLETIN

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—French Premier Pierre Mendes-France said today that if his proposals for changing the European Army treaty are rejected, France might swing in another crisis to a leftist government similar to the prewar "Popular Front."

Paul-Henri Spaak, Belgian foreign minister and president of the conference, appeared discouraged as the group broke up after a meeting of almost two hours on general aspects of the crisis provoked by Mendes-France's proposed changes.

Spaak refused to make any statement, saying it was too early to know what might develop. The ministers planned to continue the general discussion this afternoon.

Only 15 men attended this morning's meeting. The ministers sought an intimate atmosphere for a free discussion of their views. West Germany and Italy had three representatives present, and the other four nations—France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—two each. One member of the conference secretariat rounded out the group.

Those who attended the talks were reluctant to comment as they emerged. IT WAS reported, however, that

U. S. Plans New Charge For Lattimore

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government will seek a new perjury indictment against Owen Lattimore, controversial Far Eastern specialist, U. S. Atty. Leo A. Rover announced today.

In December, 1952, a federal grand jury indicted Lattimore, one-time Far Eastern affairs adviser to the state department, on seven counts of perjury growing out of his sworn testimony before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Two of those counts, including the key one—that he lied when he said he never was a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Red interests—later were thrown out on appeal on the ground that they were too vague.

Rover said he will not appeal to the Supreme Court for reinstatement of those two counts, but instead will offer new evidence to a grand jury beginning Sept. 13.

Rover said the evidence will include "certain aspects" of Lattimore's sworn testimony before the committee in February 1952, which were not included in the original indictment.

Should the grand jury vote additional charges against Lattimore, Rover said, the procedure will be to ask that they be consolidated with the five counts remaining in the original indictment.

In any event, Rover said, the government is prepared to bring Lattimore to trial on the five remaining counts.

Generally Fair Weather Outlook

By The Associated Press
There were some rain clouds in the mid-continent and the eastern third of the country but generally fair weather was the outlook for most of the country today.

Showers and thunderstorms struck over a broad area yesterday from Arizona and New Mexico northeastward to the Great Lakes region. There also were showers in the Southeastern states and in some parts of the Appalachians. A storm moving in from the Pacific brought general rains to Washington.

Heavy thunderstorms were reported in sections of Illinois and Indiana and in west Texas. Springfield, Ill., was hit by heavy rain and strong winds with gusts up to 63 miles an hour.

Warm weather was reported over most of the southern and southwest states with readings of 100 degrees again yesterday in Arkansas, Oklahoma and in sections of adjoining states.

Mendes-France had assured the ministers his great aims are to find some way to tie Germany to the Western alliance, to permit the rearmament of Germany, to give

Anti-Red Bill Hammered Out By Conferees

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House conferees reached agreement today on a bill to outlaw the Communist party.

Sen. Butler (R-Md) told a reporter the agreement was unanimous. He said he would call the bill up for action in the Senate shortly.

The conferees came up with a compromise bill by dropping a provision making mere membership in the Communist Party punishable by fine and imprisonment.

In its place, they put a clause saying a person who is a member of a Communist-action group shall be subject to the penalties provided in the 1950 Internal Security Act.

The 1950 law, of which Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) was the author, provides that members of Communist-action groups shall be barred from defense plants, from employment by the federal government and from obtaining a passport.

In addition, if they fail to register with the attorney general as required by law, they are subject to imprisonment for five years and to a fine of $10,000.

The schedule called for the new compromise version to be submitted first to the Senate and then to the House.

SEN. BUTLER told reporters the Senate-House conferees agreed on it unanimously.

Other parts of the measure would strip the Communist party of its legal rights and privileges and deprive labor unions, found to be Communist-infiltrated, of their legal standing before the National Labor Relations Board.

Before the conference agreement, Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, said he was confident the group would produce a measure acceptable to Atty. Gen. Brownell.

Knowland said also he thought President Eisenhower would sign any bill Congress might pass which was aimed at the Communist party.

There has been speculation President Eisenhower might veto a bill such as the Senate passed Tuesday with language making party membership a crime.

A SENATOR familiar with what went on at a series of huddles late last night said he understood the changes to be recommended would involve a series of 14 points of "evidence" which juries would have to consider in any charge against a person for alleged membership in the Communist party.

That language was written by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.). Another senator, who also declined to be quoted by name, said he understood the Justice Department wanted language to prevent possible interference with anti-subversive prosecutions now under way.

Rep. Polk Says 'Middle Man' Brought About Farm Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Polk (D-Ohio) says businessmen who "benefit most from low farm prices" are chiefly responsible for the Eisenhower Administration's new farm program.

"It is the manufacturers, processors, packers and distributors of farm commodities" who were the "principal advisers" in bringing about the new flexible supports, he contends. Polk is a member of the House Agriculture Committee.

In a House speech yesterday, Polk noted the House Agriculture Committee recently found consumers are not benefiting from falling farm commodity prices.

The ones gaining, he continued, are "middlemen" who have been represented on 50 agricultural advisory committees set up by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

"I fear they are the persons who have forced Secretary Benson to repudiate President Eisenhower's

German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer help in his difficult internal political situation and to get a European organization started.

There was also a report he had sounded out the other ministers about a possible new Big Four meeting with Russia to seek a German peace settlement. The United States and Britain oppose such a meeting at this time.

Russia recently approached the West with two proposals that appeared designed primarily to torpedo the EDC.

One was for an early Big Four foreign ministers' parley on Germany. The other was for a conference of all European countries, the United States and Red Chinese observers to work out an East-West security or nonaggression scheme.

J. W. Beyen, Dutch foreign minister, was said to have spoken extemporaneously, in a critical tone, of Mendes-France's assessment of the European political situation. Spaak's address was reported to have been milder.

The ministers were disturbed by morning traffic noises floating from the street into the big banquet room of the Belgian Foreign Ministry. This afternoon's talks were ordered shifted to Spaak's office.

Bank Bandits Get $30,000 In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two gunmen wearing painters' overalls today held up the People's Savings & Loan Assn. and escaped with $30,000.

L. J. Linek, treasurer of the association at 4401 Clark Ave., who was forced to open the vault at pistol-point, estimated the loss.

The bandits, their faces covered with silk stockings, apparently were waiting in a parking lot in the rear of the bank.

They rammed a pistol into the back of Emil Pekar, 45, an escrow officer, as he entered a rear door shortly after 8:30 a. m., and demanded that he open the vault.

Miss Helen Cerny, 40, a teller, had arrived a few minutes earlier. "I told them there was a time lock on it and it couldn't be opened until Linek got there," Pekar said.

The two then were bound with wire and forced to sit on the floor. Linek, who arrived a short time later, said he was threatened with death unless he opened the vault.

He said the men stuffed the money into two satchels and ran out a back door.

Columbus Wants Turnpike Closer

COLUMBUS (AP)—A plan to bring the proposed north-south turnpike closer to Columbus was announced yesterday by city and Franklin County officials.

They said they will present the plan to State Highway Director S. O. Linzell. The group includes Columbus Chamber of Commerce officials, County Engineer Robert F. Werner.

They suggested the turnpike should run south of U. S. 40 from West Jefferson to Summerford in Madison County instead of north. Their proposal would add approximately three miles to the 295-mile route and a mile to the 115-mile Toledo spur.

Ex-Publisher Dies

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Charles S. Burke, 68, who retired four years ago as head of the States Publishing Co., died here yesterday at Mercy Hospital. The company published county directories in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan. Burke was a former advertising employee of the Springfield Daily News and Sun.

3 Major Issues Stand Before Final Gavel

Disputed Measures May Be Ready For Ike By Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second session of the 83rd Congress reached its final stages today, with only three major matters to be disposed of before a final gavel on all legislative business.

The three are a compromise foreign aid bill providing $2,781,000,000 in new cash, a bill to ban the Communist party and a bill to broaden and liberalize the social security system.

There was a chance all of these could be passed and sent to President Eisenhower by tonight. Some of the lawmakers thought tomorrow was more likely for the wind-up, and a few pessimists still expected the session run over to early next week.

The way legislation has been taking a surprise turn at the last minute, there was just no telling.

When legislative business is completed, the House will be able to quit until January. But the Senate may come back later to dispose of the recommendations of its special committee on the nation to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Senate-House conferees agreed on the compromise foreign aid appropriation yesterday, and it was expected to whip through both branches today in short order. This is the final money bill of the session.

However, the two other big measures remained to be hammered out in conference.

The administration is opposed to a provision written into an anti-Communist bill by the Senate which would slap heavy penalties and fines on individual party members.

The conferees were seeking some way to meet administration objections, and still satisfy the majority in both Senate and House which have voted to ban the party through individual penalties. The Justice Department has expressed fear that making membership in the party illegal will interfere with prosecution of Red leaders under present laws.

The social security bill, a must item on the President's list and also that of nearly all of the lawmakers, is hung up over a controversy as to coverage.

AFL Accepts Offer: CIO To Fight On

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—By voting to accept a previously rejected 6-cent hourly wage increase, AFL atomic production workers put the squeeze on disturbed CIO union leaders who said today the AFL vote would not block their demands for a 15-cent boost.

The AFL workers put teeth into their leaders' recommendations by voting about 2-1 in secret ballot yesterday to accept the 6-cent wage hike suggestion handed down June 15 by the President's atomic energy labor relations panel.

Disappointed CIO Local President Emerson Pownall said today, "We thought that they would back us up. We wanted their support but they're not going to stop us."

And he added: "We think we'll win out in the end."

Always in the past, Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co. has granted identical increases to the CIO and AFL at bargaining time. The company operates all four atomic plants involved here and at Paducah, Ky., for the Atomic Energy Commission. A wage increase won't cost Carbide anything for, under the cost-plus contract, the firm will pass along the increase to the government.

Leaders of the unions, which represent about 4,500 workers each, have been requesting more money to offset rent increases in government-owned housing here. Pownall said the increases ranged from "28 to 51 per cent." Both unions draw scale ranging from $1.58 to $2.40 an hour.

One of the fine old homes of Hillsboro, one of the town's historic landmarks, is going under the auctioneer's hammer Aug. 30. And with it will go its antique furnishings.

It is known as the Trimble-Thompson home. It belonged to Gov. Trimble, the eighth governor of Ohio, and later to his daughter, Eliza Trimble Thompson, who organized and led the worldwide temperance movement, the forerunner of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The old mansion, which was built in 1812, is to be open to the public for three days prior to the sale so those interested in the historical background may go through it and see first hand the setting for the home life of two of the state's illustrious citizens.

All of the proceeds from this public showing are to go to Hillsboro's hospital fund.

Ask your friends and neighbors who shop regularly at Helfrich's if it's possible to cut down food bills without cutting down on the quality or quantity of foods you buy. Their answer will be an emphatic 'YES' because they see cash-in-hand proof here.

The Difference of the Free Enterprise System

We can learn a lot about what Communism means by mere observation. Not long ago one of the better national TV programs revealed a motion picture film taken in East Germany, now Communist dominated. The camera man who, reportedly had made the film at great personal risk, had escaped with his family to the West.

The film was a grim exposure of the material and spiritual degradation of the people that is the hallmark of this and all other communists "workers' paradises." And it showed far better than words can describe, the incredibly low living and working standards imposed in the police states.

One series of scenes in the film should be of exceptional interest to American farmers. A large piece of mechanized farm equipment, which, like practically everything else, is under government control, is brought into a village. The local farmers make a major celebration of the occasion, out of gratitude to the authorities who are graciously giving them the temporary services of the machine. For a brief spell they enjoy the wonderful boon of mechanical power. The rest of the time, of course, they must do the work with their own backs and arms, aided by a few undernourished draft animals.

Here in America, first-class equipment is regarded by farmers as a basic necessity. They own it and they use it as they choose. It has resulted in more production accompanied by sharp drops in the amount of human and animal labor required.

It is a bulwark of agriculture's earning power and living standards. It has been largely responsible for the transformation of farming into a business.

What we should never forget is that it, like all the other tools we use, is a fruit of the free enterprise system which is the source of our strength and wealth.

"Clean-Up" Takes Time

Another high official of the government in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations recently has been sentenced to prison. He is Joseph D. Nunan, former U. S. commissioner of internal revenue, sentenced to a five-year penitentiary term and fined $15,000 for evasion of income taxes.

It will be many a month, perhaps years, before the "mess" in Washington that spread and flourished in the era of fixers, five-percenters and influence peddlers under the New and "Fair" Deals, is cleaned up. Even the sending of the culprits to jail does not undo the damage, for the waste and looting cannot wholly be recouped, nor can the moral degradation be away.

Mare Island Has String of Firsts

By Hal Boyle

VALLEJO, Calif. (AP)—Did you ever hear of a community raising $200,000 to throw a birthday party for a naval shipyard?

It is a bit unusual. But the citizens here have chipped in that amount to celebrate next month the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Mare Island Naval Base by brusque David G. Farragut, later to become America's first admiral.

The long, low island at the northern end of San Francisco Bay had been bought by the navy for $83,491, and was the first link in its chain of defenses of the Pacific Coast.

Farragut, who had joined the Navy at the age of 10, was 50 years old then. He had no way of knowing that within another decade he would become the hero of the battle of Mobile Bay, eternally famous for his command, "Damn the torpedoes—full speed ahead."

But Mare Island—named after a lady horse that fell off a flatboat and swam ashore—has produced many another hero since Farragut in the last 100 years. Through five wars it has built 490 vessels, repaired thousands of others, served for a century as a major base of America's sea might.

Today it serves the same durable purpose. It is the home of a great portion of our "mothball fleet," carefully cocooned against rust and ready on short notice to prow the sea lanes again.

The entire community is proud of Mare Island's long, proud record. It launched the dreadnaught battleship California—and also Elsa Maxwell. Elsa came here as a refugee from the 1906 San Francisco fire and earthquake, and, according to local legend, immediately organized a party.

Other Mare Island "firsts": The first aircraft landing deck in the Navy was built here on the U. S. Pennsylvania in 1911.

So was the first Navy oil tanker, the Navy's first oil-burning vessel, its first all-welded hull, its first electrically propelled ship (later it became the Langley, our first aircraft carrier) and the largest submarine ever built, the old Nautilus. The destroyer Ward, built here in 17 record-breaking days in 1918, sank a Japanese submarine at Pearl Harbor.

The Mare Island yard didn't exactly launch bandmaster Paul Whiteman, but he once served as a Navy musician here.

During the last World War the shipyard—its shops are among the largest on earth—employed 40,000 workers, including 9,000 Rosie the Riveters, and subcontracted assembly jobs through 50 communities as far East as Denver.

Since Farragut founded it, the yard has grown from 1,000 acres to 2,446, and today is perhaps the largest naval installation in the world. Its equipment has risen to a book value of $180,000,000. Its 13,000 employees have an annual payroll of $55,000,000.

Each year its schools graduate 60 trained technicians with the skill to keep on turning out the long line of ships that have kept America's shores inviolate for nearly a century and a half.

But to me one of the most human factors about this sprawling yard is that it not only built the ships that carried men into battle for their country—it also in post-war years made a great record as a naval rehabilitation center for amputees. It taught them to walk on new hopes and new legs.

The war-scarred men who were helped here to rebuild their broken lives are certainly among the brightest testimonials to Mare Island's first century. To repair a ship is an achievement certainly, but to repair a man is a glory.

Papa Losing Out to the State?

By George Sokolsky

The 80th birthday of Herbert Hoover reminded me of a similar occasion when Bertrand Russell, having at long last achieved maturity at four score years, commented on the biological aspects of fatherhood. Bertrand Russell, as you may recall, is a mathematician of note who also interests himself in philosophy and politics. He said, on the occasion of his 80th birthday:

"The father, the family, and the clan are all being replaced by the state, which is the residuary legatee of these antiquated authorities. I will not pretend to welcome this change. I am not in love with the state. And a society in which the state rules unchecked is likely to be drab, uniform, and bellicose. At any rate it will be bellicose until such times as there is a single dominant world state. But whether for good or ill, the tendencies of which I have been speaking seem quite irresistible unless, as a result of war, modern industrial methods collapse and the world returns to a more primitive economy."

This gloomy outlook on our society represents the views of many who believe that we have nearly lost the fight. It is an unhappy point of view based upon nothing more than the diplomatic and military victories of the Soviet Union. Yet even in Soviet Russia, the family system continues: children do love and respect their parents, and homes are not state institutions.

Russell made this point, too: "I incline to think that the weakening of the biological aspects of society is likely to prove a permanent feature of the modern world. The strength of the family in the past depended very largely upon the insecurity of children whose parents were not in a position to protect them. In the modern world, the state increasingly takes over the duties that formerly belonged to the father. The mother still has her place, but the father is becoming a shadowy figure."

It is something for congratulations that mothers still have a place in the family and in our society, but papa has passed out of the picture except as a biological progenitor! This pessimistic outlook is undoubtedly an over-emphasis on science and too little on religion; too much on relating man to the Rhesus monkey and too little with God in whose image he was created.

Science does have a way of making one pessimistic as, for example, the certainty that the world will come to an end because of the hydrogen bomb which is not unlike the hysteria preceding the year 1,000 that upon the advent of that date the world would terminate its course. Nothing untoward happened at that time and the probability is that the human race will somehow march through the forthcoming centuries wondering why we mid-twentieth century barbarians were so frightened.

I wonder what Russell means when he says that the state is taking over the duties of the father. In most countries, the father is still expected to support his children off his earnings, the state only caring for those who are parentless, which we do here out of private charity. In most countries, the father and not the state sits at the head of the table and sees to it that children comport themselves according to the mores of each particular race. Papa buys baby's shoes even in Soviet Russia and in Red China; if the state were to buy the shoes, so much politics would be involved that everybody would prefer to go barefoot except those who belong to the controlling party. Sooner or later, a Congressional committee would investigate the corruption of shoes and another committee would be appointed to discover why the first committee went into the question of shoes. Papa does it all with greater simplicity and without filling our myriads of forms.

It would seem that the state is being taken too seriously, as Herbert Spencer foresaw that it would be. That worthy institution is only as effective as any people let it be and while it is true that revolutions are very hard to make these days, unless they are stimulated and supported by the great powers, human beings find out, sooner or later, how to resist tyranny, particularly when it affects the family which is the most persistent of human institutions.

My guess would be that papa will somehow survive these troubled times.

Congress Puts Final OK On Atomic Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today got a bill carrying out his sweeping new program to open the way for a private atomic power industry and to bolster European defenses with more data on nuclear weapons.

The House put Congress' final approval on the long-debated measure by voice vote yesterday. The Senate had accepted the compromise version Monday.

But Chairman Cole (R-NY) of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee served notice he intends renewing a fight next January over disputed patent provisions which prompted much of the Senate's bitter 13-day debate on the original bill.

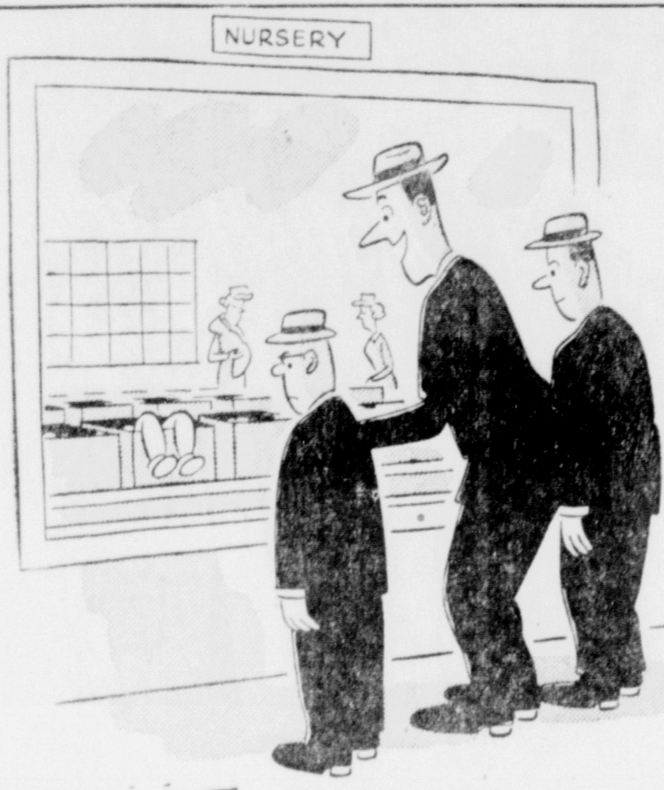

The measure sent to the White House requires the sharing of all civilian patents for five years on a free basis. After that, owners of developments not made under government auspices can get exclusive patent rights for 17 years, renewable for the same period.

This was a compromise between the House position calling for exclusive patents at the outset and the original Senate demand for 10 years of compulsory patent sharing.

Hemorrhage of Nose Can Endanger Life

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

A bloody nose can damage more than dignity, for, in an adult, it may become severe enough to endanger life.

About 40 per cent of adult nose bleeds, omitting those due to injury or fights, have high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries as their cause. Irritation of the nose, inflammation, infection, or some abnormal blood vessel may also be at fault.

Other Causes

A blood disease such as leukemia, some vitamin deficiency, or violent exertion, especially at high altitudes, can also bring on bleeding from the nose.

Self Treatment

Most people with nosebleeds try at first to treat themselves without finding out the cause. Mild bleeding may be checked by an ice pack to the nose or by compressing the opening of the nose at the tip.

If these measures fail, however, the patient should be seen immediately by his physician, who may have to take more drastic measures to control the hemorrhage. He may pack the nose. If he can find the bleeding point, he may cauterize or burn the bleeder in order to stop the bleeding.

Extreme Cases

Certain cases do not respond, and these noses must be packed both in front and in back. If the bleeding does not stop, it may even be necessary to hospitalize the patient. It is very rarely that a person will bleed to death from a nose hemorrhage if he consults his physician in ample time to control the bleeding.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A reader: Whenever I have a scratch or someone touches me it leaves an imprint almost as if they are writing on me. What could this be due to?

Answer: The disorder you mention is known as dermatographism which is probably due to an allergy. The use of the antihistamine drugs is sometimes of help.

Gossip of Roosevelt-Truman Days

By Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON—Fresh palace gossip of Roosevelt-Truman days has been furnished recently by C. Dickerman Williams, who had an excellent observation and listening post as General Counsel of the Commerce Department in that period. He blames many strange happenings, including the Harry Dexter White affair, on possible Communist infiltrators and personal cronies around the White House.

Writing in the American Bar Association's Journal, Williams proposes a complete reorganization and regularization of the White House Office and Staff, which is now responsible to nobody but the President. Reprinted in the Congressional Record, it has led several members to suggest that the Hoover Commission or a Special Congressional Committee study the problem.

WHITE HOUSES POWER—The presidential force has grown from only 42 under Coolidge to 597 under Roosevelt and 1,181 under Truman. Although not confirmed by the Senate, many of the immediate White Houses exercise far more power than Cabinet members because of their accessibility to and personal relationship with the Chief Executive.

Harry Hopkins, for instance, influenced more major foreign policy decisions than did Cordell Hull or his successors as Secretary of State. "Pa" Watson, F. D. R.'s jovial military aide, bossed the Pentagon on occasions. John R. Steelman, adviser on labor matters, bypassed Secretaries Perkins and Tobin. "Steve" Early and Marvin M. McIntyre decided who could and could not get the President's ear and mind.

Secretaries Forrestal and Ickes frequently complained that boyish clerks and second-class seamen in the Budget Bureau dictated Defense and Interior policies. Only recently they almost closed down a Texas smelter, although it is the only one on the Western Continent capable of refining low-grade ores.

RESPONSIBLE—Williams points out that J. Edgar Hoover, Fred M. Vinson and Tom C. Clark opposed the promotion of Harry Dexter White. Vinson and Clark were then Secretary of the Treasury and Attorney General, respectively. Then Williams continues:

"Another explanation, therefore, seems possible—that some employees of the Office of the President, secretly a Communist or a Communist sympathizer, and not yet identified, may have been the source of unscrupulous advice to sign the commission, or may have secured the President's signature without realization by Mr. Truman of the nature of the document he was signing, or, indeed, may have forged the signature.

"The name of Lauchlin Currie, Administrative assistant to the President from 1939 until he was dismissed on June 30, 1945, has appeared repeatedly in testimony concerning the Silvermaster espionage ring."

LACK OF CONTROL—Referring to the utter lack of any con-

"It is indeed anomalous that Senate confirmation is not required for such a powerful officer as the Director of the Budget, who reviews the proposals of members of the Cabinet, but it is necessary for the appointment of a second lieutenant in the Regular Army, the postmaster of a village or a sanitary engineer in the Health Service."

The Budget Bureau, in Williams' opinion, should be placed in Treasury, and the Council of Economic Advisers in Commerce as to all other "palace" servants, he says:

The personnel of the Office of the President should be subjected to control by law with respect to their appointment, compensation and duties."

ACLU Against Anti-Red Bills

Patrick Murphy Malin, the organization's executive secretary, said in a statement yesterday the ban would drive Communists into "clandestine channels more difficult to police."

Dinner Precedes Special Meeting Of Garden Club

Members of the Town and Country Garden Club enjoyed a special event for the month of August, when they motored to the Babb Drive Inn on the Columbus road for dinner Wednesday evening and also held a brief business session.

Members and guests were seated at two long tables centered with summer flowers for the delightful dinner hour and later the business meeting was in charge of the retiring president, Mrs. Harold McConaughy, during which a discussion was held on the entries and awards received at the Fayette County Fair.

Mrs. Rex Bloomer, president elect, led in the lengthy discussion also held on participation in the Fall Flower Show on September 17 at the Washington Country Club, and each member selected an arrangement from the entry list to be entered in the show in which all Garden Clubs in the county will be included.

Mrs. McConaughy also welcomed into the club the following new members, Mrs. Keith Peterman, Mrs. John Aills, Mrs. Wilbur Rapp, Mrs. Robert Hawk, and Mrs. Charles Gibeau and one guest Mrs. Wells Reinhold of Elkhart, Indiana.

Members present for the special occasion were: Mrs. Alice Cory, Miss Betty Oswald, Mrs. Rex Bloomer, Mrs. Floyd Henkleman, Mrs. Glen Earl Davis, Jr., Mrs. Howard Nessell, Mrs. Dan Thompson, Mrs. Harold McConaughy and Mrs. Robert Browning.

Brass, copper, iron and galvanized kettles should not be used when making pickles as these metals are likely to cause undesirable color changes or react with the acid or salt to produce unwholesome substances. Use enameled ware, glass, aluminum, stainless steel or stoneware utensils for your pickle making.

Sprinkle orange slices with brown sugar and cinnamon; top with a soft custard sauce for a delightful dessert.

Garden Club Is Entertained At Seaman Home

The regular meeting of the Posa Garden Club, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Bess Seaman, near Madison Mills, Wednesday afternoon, with fourteen members present and two guests included.

Mrs. Seaman presided over the meeting which was opened with a poem, read by Mrs. H. W. Melvin.

The usual reports were heard and approved and the afternoon was largely taken up with the plans and discussions on the Fall Flower show at the Washington Country Club, September 17, when all Garden Clubs in the county will participate.

Each member present chose an arrangement to be used in the entries for the show and plans were made to meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Butcher to make the arrangements.

A highlight of the afternoon was the revealing of "Secret Sisters" and following the exchange of gifts new names were drawn for the coming year.

The program in charge of Mrs. Arthur Schlichter was made up of the giving of timely hints for gardening during the month of August.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Seaman served a dainty dessert course.

Mrs. Max Schlichter and Mrs. Orville Scott were included as guests.

Public Reacts More Violently To Stock News

Widespread Buying Leads To Greater Shifts In Price

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Brokers say the public is coming into the stock market now. And that makes for quicker and wider swings in stock prices.

The public reacts much more violently than do institutional investors to news or rumors that affect confidence, seem to arouse big chances for gain, or, on the contrary, seem to call for caution or retreat.

And for almost a year now the institutional investors have been one of the chief supports of the rising market. These investors handle other people's money—the growing corporate pension funds, for instance, or the growing total of savings in the form of insurance, or the big educational, philanthropic or private trust funds.

They have been buying up the blue chips—the top-grade stocks with the best records of stability and the firmest foreseeable future.

As these blue chips have been salted away in the strong boxes of the big institutional investors, there have been fewer shares available for trading on the stock exchange. A flurry of demand for an issue, therefore, can send the price up faster than formerly because the supply to meet that demand is thin.

Brokers say that the recent interest in the secondary shares—the

Mrs. Lucille Creath, Miss Olive Swope, Mrs. A. O. Riley, all of Bloomingburg and Mrs. John T. Dick of New Holland.

Guests included were: Mrs. Wells Reinhold of Elkhart, Indiana, Mrs. Lee Rogers of Miami, Florida, and Mrs. Joe Elliott of Bloomingburg.

stocks priced lower than the blue chips and with more of a speculative tinge—is one evidence that the public is being drawn into the market. Another, they say, is found in some of the quick and wide swings in individual stocks due to corporate news or to rumors involving various companies.

With the public in the market, the chance of a big break is greater, according to the brokers, because the public takes fright faster and dumps its holdings.

The institutional investors, held to account for what they do with other people's money, are presumably more ready to ignore temporary swings in prices, since they bought for long-time gains or income. They don't dump stocks fast, although they frequently sell one stock to buy another if its prospects look more attractive.

The public also is more likely to respond to the psychological nudges that come from official proclamations of confidence, brokers say. The institutional investors for 11 months now have been buying up stocks, have shown a long-term confidence in the economy's future.

But that is quite another thing from expecting a quick boom in the next few months, based on any official assurances of future prosperity.

Should any such speculative boom develop, the conservatives in Wall Street would be disturbed, fearing it would lead to excesses for which the economy would have to pay later in a real recession.

Those who like to compare the present rising stock market trend with the one that preceded the big speculation upturn of prices and consequent bust in 1929 stress the role of the institutional investor in getting this market aside from the 1929 one.

They also note another big difference: The exchange's present margin rules require that at least half of the price of the stock be put up in cash. In 1929 traders could buy on a shoestring—and get wiped out by a comparative mild drop in price. With the present high margin rule, it would take a really big break in prices to wipe out many traders.

TAKE A GOOD LOOK at the Helderlein twins, held by their mother, Mrs. Neil Helderlein, in Port Vue, Pa., and you can understand her predicament. Recently her husband Neil, 24, and son Neil, Jr., 3, had a siege of polio, and she spent all the time she could at the hospital. Meanwhile, the twins outgrew their hospital identification tags and Mrs. Helderlein couldn't tell them apart. An identification expert was called in, and he compared footprints with those made at the hospital. Now she knows which is Dean (left) and which is Barry (right). (International)

WASHINGTON (AP) — American hopes for a single European army, which could form a solid wall against Russian attack, were in danger of landing on history's scrap heap in Brussels today.

There, representatives of the six governments which would make up that army met so France could lay down her new terms for joining the European Defense Community (EDC). The other five are West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

France herself first proposed the single army. Having suggested it, she has stalled on joining it ever since, thus keeping it from coming into existence.

Under EDC, troops from all six nations would form a single army, wearing the same uniforms, using the same weapons. And all under a single command chosen by the six from among themselves.

After long, painful consultation, all six nations in May 1952 signed a treaty to create EDC. But the signing by the various foreign ministers wasn't enough. EDC couldn't be born until the parliaments of all six had ratified the agreement. The parliaments of West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg did so.

Italy still hasn't but that has not been considered a stumbling block. The Italians were expected to go along as soon as the French Parliament approved.

More than two years after the treaty was signed, hasn't acted. There are a number of reasons, mainly these: fear of a rearmament, national pride, Russian influence.

The Russian influence showed in actions of the Communist members of the French Parliament. Russia doesn't want a rearmament West Germany, so they don't.

The nationalists don't like the idea of France becoming part of a multinational military force which would mean a long step toward the end of a separate French army under full French control.

And there is the fear of Germany. After two world wars the French have reason to worry about a Germany rearmament. And letting West Germany into EDC would mean rearming her, although in a limited way. She'd have about 500,000 men in 12 divisions in EDC.

Yet, part of the original French thinking in suggesting EDC was that, if Germany were in EDC, she no longer would have her own army, as a possible threat to her neighbors, and the German general staff would be reformed.

Further, the United States, Britain and many West Europeans felt a defense against Russian attack would be weak unless West German manpower was included on the side of the West.

The United States and Britain repeatedly have pressed the French to ratify the EDC agreement. Because of mixed feeling in their Parliament, French leaders backed away from a test.

Then a new French premier, Pierre Mendes-France, came on the scene — a man of force, decision and action. He negotiated a truce in the Indochina war. He offered home rule to the Tunisians.

And he promised to lay the question of ratifying EDC before the French Parliament this month. Since the mood of Parliament was not good, he and his staff sought a solution that might be acceptable there.

His solution, according to reports from Europe, would require the other five EDC countries to agree to some changes in the treaty. Those changes are described as so far-reaching that — while they might be acceptable to the French Parliament — they might also wreck any hope for a real EDC.

In short, although the French agreed to all the details of the EDC treaty back in 1952, they now want to change it. For that reason Mendes-France arranged to talk with the foreign ministers of the other five EDC countries at Brussels today.

Those countries, plus the United States and Britain, have taken a chilly view of Mendes-France's ideas as reported. A shrewd man, he may deliberately be sounding tough to get a compromise.

Unemployment Report Made By Office Manager

Says Most Claims Are By Workers on Jobs Outside County

From Ward Miller, manager of the Fayette County office here of the Ohio State Employment Service, it was learned today that what are termed the "continued unemployment claims" through the local office were four times as many during the past four weeks from July 24 to August 15, as during the same period last year.

The unusual feature of this however, according to Miller, lies in the fact that the increased unemployment is not due to conditions in Fayette County, which are practically normal, but to the large percentage of people from here who are employed in surrounding cities, such as Dayton or Columbus, in certain lines of industry.

Whereas in these same weeks of 1953 the unemployment claims in the office here averaged from 31 to 33, the claims this year ran from 151 for the week ending last July 24 to 132 on August 14.

MILLER STATES that his statewide records show, however, that the unemployed in Fayette County are less in number than in all but two or three places of similar size in Ohio.

Referring to the agricultural employment situation in this county, Miller states that in July his office secured employment on farms for 105 individuals and that unemployed farm workers here are not more numerous than the normal average.

He further indicated that there are enough applications for employment on file in the local office to assure adequate labor to meet all demands in almost any line.

Reports Are Made By Future-Farmers

Future Farmers of the Washington C. H. High School chapter today know a little more about how their overall program is progressing as the result of reports by committee chairmen at the regular monthly meeting in the chapter room in the high school.

With David Gray, the president, conducting the meeting these chairman reported:

Roger Sollars on the treasury and earnings and savings; Dan Schlichter on cooperation; David Whiteside on leadership activities; Oscar Glass on supervised farming; Jim Wood and John Bryant on public relations.

Roger Hoffman, the WHS vocational agriculture department head and FFA advisor, reviewed the part the FFA played in the swine show held at the stockyards Aug. 20.

Young Adult Class Young but Growing

An appeal is now being made for recruits for the new "young adult class" that was organized at the Sugar Creek Baptist Church July 23.

Although less than a month old, the class has been growing and interest has been increasing, the reports show. But, those now in it are urging still more to join and attend the meetings regularly.

Mrs. F. G. Maurer, the wife of the pastor, is the teacher of the class.

Members of the class have described her lectures as "most inspiring" and she has returned the compliment by inviting others to "join this fine group of young people".

Despite Darkness Of Cellar, Pittsburgh Has Ray Of Hope

PITTSBURGH (AP) — There's no pennant talk buzzing in the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates today but the loyal fans who have insisted General Manager Branch Rickey will produce a winner are bursting at the seams.

The Pirates are in last place in the National League but 20,102 fans turned out Tuesday night to watch them spot the Brooklyn Dodgers two runs in the first inning, then come through with a 4-2 victory for their fifth consecutive win. The crowd was the largest to watch a night home game this year.

The five-game winning streak is the longest since Rickey took charge of the Pirates in 1951.

The victory over the Dodgers was only the third in 13 meetings with the club this season. But it was enough to send the long-suffering Pirate fans home in good spirits.

Manager Fred Haney took the victory in stride. He isn't predicting even whether his club will get out of the cellar spot it has occupied most of the season.

"We're just a relaxed ball club," he said. "We're not making so many mistakes. We're getting hits when they count and coming through with double plays at the right time. We've got a great bunch of kids. We'll ultimately field a team that will make Mr. Rickey and the fans completely happy."

Dodger Manager Walt Alton commented:

"There's no question the Pirates are a young and hustling ball club. They've improved since I last saw them. They'll improve more."

Before the game John Galbreath, multimillionaire president of the club, announced that he, Rickey, Vice President Tom Johnson and two members of Galbreath's family have put more money into the club. He didn't divulge the amount but it was estimated at $250,000.

The club finished seventh in 1951 Rickey's first year at the helm. It was last in 1952 and 1953. Al Abrams, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, speculated the Pirates have dropped around $1,850,000 since Rickey took over. Rickey, 72, said recently he is quitting as general manager when his five-year contract expires next November.

Galbreath said he would like to have him continue, instead of serving in advisory capacity as he plans.

Rickey didn't comment on Galbreath's expression of confidence. And he didn't have a word to say on the Pirate winning streak.

Murphy Co. Profit Down Only $9,782

W. C. Shaw, chairman of the board of directors, and J. S. Mack, president, have announced that the net earnings of G. C. Murphy Co. for the six months to June 30, 1954, were $2,488,886, or $1.07 per share of common stock. This compares with $2,998,668 net profit for the six months of 1953, and per share earnings of $1.31.

The statement by the two company officers was released here by Russell Hinchey, the manager of the Washington C. H. store.

Sales for the six months were $77,117,798, compared with $81,582,891 for the first six months of 1953.

Since the first of the year one new store has been opened in Philadelphia, and two stores in Baltimore and one in Marion, Ind., have been closed.

One new store is planned to open Aug. 19, with two additional stores in shopping centers scheduled to be opened late in 1954. Arrangements have been made for six shopping center locations making eight now scheduled for 1955 opening. Twelve stores have been air-conditioned this year, and space saving counters, which will expedite customer self selection and permit the display of additional items, have been installed in six units.

The working capital position of the company at June 30 improved by $2,929,427 over June 30, 1953.

Frying Chickens Are Good Buy

Chuck Roast Again Among Features

By The Associated Press
Fried chicken accompanied by any of the plentiful vegetables grown in nearby producing areas should provide a tempting and economical Sunday dinner for you this weekend, food store men report.

Frying chickens are going to be one of the leading specials in markets across the country, with reductions ranging from 2 to 6 cents a pound. But if you're tired of chicken, a little careful shopping will turn up good buys in other meats.

Chuck roast again will be a weekend feature and a number of stores will be offering lower prices on rib roast, leg of lamb, rib end pork roast, leg and rump of veal and loin veal chop.

Pork chops may be higher in your city this weekend. One chain plans to boost prices four to eight cents a pound in widespread areas.

Eggs also will be more expensive in some cities. However, prices are still well below those of a year ago.

According to the American Meat Institute, retail meat prices are at their lowest level of the year right now.

It's an excellent time to buy vegetables. In most parts of the country, the nearby season is approaching its peak and the outlook is for reasonable prices on numerous items fresh from the countryside. Produce specialists say corn, cabbage, peppers, beans, cucumbers and celery rate special attention this week from thrifty housewives. And they also recommend potatoes, radishes, tomatoes, eggplant and onions. Lettuce is moderately priced, these specialists add.

Honeydew melons and cantaloupes are rated good buys. Peaches are plentiful with many varieties on the market, but there also is a wide range in quality. Grapes are reckoned a good buy, too.

Brazilian coffee prices tumbled this week and many coffee roasters wasted no time in trimming the prices they charge grocers. Some of these wholesale reductions, which ranged from a dime to as much as 16 cents a pound, were quickly passed on to the consumer.

Housewife Due For Break In Coffee Prices

Butter Purchasing Increases; Bread To Take Cent Rise

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—American housewives who took a dim view of coffee price boosting are looking forward today to their reward—coffee price cuts.

The Brazilian government hiked the export price of coffee in June. It was one hike too much for many Americans. And buying of Brazilian coffee by Americans dropped sharply.

Now the Brazilian government is reshuffling its complicated foreign exchange set-up and announces that Brazilian coffee farmers will get just as much in Brazilian money for their crop, but Americans will pay less in dollars.

The American housewife got another break on the government price support a while back when the American government—which props the price of many food items just as Brazil supports the price of coffee—lowered the support price for butter. And with lower prices, the American housewife has increased her buying of butter by about 8 per cent.

But on another front she is about to lose a skirmish. The price of bread has headed up by one cent in several cities. Bakers blame many things. One is government price supports for wheat.

Bakers say farmers are planning less of the high-grade wheat which bakers prefer for bread. Instead farmers are planting the lower grades which have the advantage of higher yields per acre. This gives farmers more bushels to put under government price support loans.

Bakers say there is a shortage of the high-grade wheat this summer, so bread prices are going up.

The housewife is getting a break at the meat counter, however, although this is due to high production rather than government controls. The American Meat Institute says that retail meat prices now are at the lowest level of the year, and down considerably from the first of the year.

Brazil's juggling of coffee export prices was forecast last Friday when coffee futures broke sharply on the New York Coffee & Sugar Exchange under selling by houses with Brazilian connections.

The following day Brazil announced it would let coffee exporters retain some American dollars when they sold to the United States. Previously they had to turn all dollars over to the Brazilian government and get cruzeiros for them.

Since Brazilians can get more cruzeiros for dollars on the free market than they can from their own government, it means they can sell coffee for less here and still come out ahead at home.

The real story in the coffee break for the housewife, however, goes back to June 3 when the Brazilian government hiked its export price to 87 cents a pound from 68 cents. American housewives already had been slowing down on their purchases of coffee, turning to other beverages, or making a pound of coffee go further.

With the June price hike, this trend became a wave of price resistance. Brazil's coffee exports to the United States were cut almost in half. Since Brazil depends upon coffee exports to supply it with the American dollars it needs, the situation became acute.

The Brazilian government bowed to the American housewife, juggled its cruzeiros once again, and came up with a lower price for coffee here.

It will be interesting to see how much, if any, of the American market Brazil has lost by its previous price hiking.

One word of caution already has come from a Brazilian source. Horacio Cintra Leite, representative here of the Brazilian Coffee Institute, says the new currency juggling is aimed at selling more coffee for dollars, but that as for the world at large "demand for coffee remains above the level of supply" so world prices will remain stable for a long time.

The American housewife will wait and see.

Bill Provides Back Pay For Fired Postman

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed and sent to the White House a bill to pay $2,799.93 to an East Liverpool, Ohio, postman found fired "unjustifiably" from his job 10 years ago.

The Post Office Department discharged mailman Charles R. Logan Sept. 6, 1944, on grounds he had, among other things, written a "false and misleading" letter to the late President Roosevelt about his work.

But the Civil Service Commission overruled the department, and Logan got his job back Nov. 5, 1945.

The bill now awaiting President Eisenhower's signature would make up for the salary Logan lost while he was under suspension.

N&W Acquires Industrial Site

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—The Norfolk & Western Railroad today announced purchase of about 600 acres of land near Haverhill, Scioto County, as a possible future industrial site.

The land is in three farms on which the Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. took options some months ago as a possible site for a new rolling mill. Rep. Neal (D-WVa) said about 10 days ago, however, Kaiser had decided to build its new aluminum plant in the Ravenswood, W. Va., area.

Man Admits Logan Slaying

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff A. J. Waldron of Hocking County said today that Robert Lee Downs, 22, of near Rockbridge, had entered a plea of guilty to a first-degree murder charge in the slaying of Dave Canfield, 70, last May 22.

The sheriff said Downs entered the plea upon arraignment before Justice of the Peace E. E. Bright yesterday, and then was bound to the grand jury without bond.

The sheriff said Downs had confessed he killed Canfield and then took 30 cents from the man's wallet.

Former Mayor Of Hamilton Dies

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Raymond H. Burke, 72, former mayor of Hamilton and a one-time representative in Congress from the Third District, died early today in Mercy Hospital where he had been a patient four days.

In 1927 Burke, a Republican, became Hamilton's first mayor under the city manager form of government. He resigned in 1942 to make a successful race for the State Senate. In 1944 he was elected to Congress and served two years.

Man Who Fired School Is Sane

Report Is Made on Hillsboro Engineer

Phillip Partridge, 43, the Hillsboro engineer who confessed that he set fire to the Lincoln elementary school in Hillsboro during a severe electrical storm the morning of July 5, was declared sane after a 30-day examination.

He is now back at his home in Hillsboro.

Partridge was held at the time of his preliminary hearing 14 months ago.

He was committed to the institution July 9, two days after entering a plea of guilty to setting fire to the school.

The order of commitment signed by Judge McDowell at that time said that there was some question as to his sanity.

A report of the examination and the findings was made by Dr. R. E. Bushong, superintendent of the state hospital, in a letter to Common Pleas Judge George W. McDowell. The letter was received here Thursday.

IN THE letter to Judge McDowell, Dr. Bushong said that Partridge "has superior general intelligence, but has been rather poorly adjusted for several years. He is rigid, greatly inhibited, overly conscientious and has, for a long time, been sympathetic toward the under-dog."

He cited several intimate points in the engineer's background, and said that these have "given rise to projection, suspicion

BPW Committees Named for Year

Twelve standing committees of the Washington C. H. Business and Professional Women's Club have been named by the new president, Mrs. Howard Dellinger.

In addition to their regular committee assignments, each committee is to take charge of one of the monthly meetings.

The topic for the year adopted by the club is "Adventures in Achievement." It was suggested by the national organization.

The club's budget for the year has been completed, the public relations committee chairman said. She did not give it in detail but said provisions had been made for funds for two projects of public interest: the $100 set aside for the upkeep of the BPW room in Memorial Hospital and the $100 for a scholarship for a girl to be graduated next spring from a Washington C. H. or Fayette County high school.

Right now, plans are being made for observing National Business Club Week in Washington C. H., Oct. 10-16.

The first committee named by the new president already has put on its program. It was the one arranged for the July 24 meeting by the budget committee made up of Norma Flee, chairman; Edith Wilson, co-chairman; Jean Everhart; Minnette Fritts; Marie Hughes; Eloise Johnson; Nancy Lawrence; Adah Rechenbach; Ruth Teeters; Phyllis Thornhill and Anna Varlas.

The other committees and the meeting for which they will have charge of the program are:

AFL To Vote On Wage Hike

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—About 4,500 AFL production workers at two atomic plants here vote today on whether to accept a previously rejected 6-cent hourly wage increase—and maybe pull the rug from under a rival CIO union holding out for more.

AFL leaders recommended that the workers accept, apparently reviewing the earlier stand in the light of a Taft-Hartley injunction slapped on the CIO last week when it called strikes over the same issue at other atomic plants here and at Paducah, Ky.

Both unions at present have scales ranging from $1.58 to $2.40 an hour. The increase is sought to offset a 23 per cent increase in rent recently placed on government-owned housing here.

Jeff. Girl Scouts At Birthday Party

A birthday celebration for Mary Dunn was a high point of the last meeting of the Jeffersonville Girl Scouts, Troop 3.

The meeting, held at the VFW Hall, was opened by President Frances Smith. After the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mary Marshall and Frances Smith.

The next meeting will be held Aug. 23.

Leaves $183,922

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bennie B. Mason, credited by police with having a gross take of more than a million dollars a year from the numbers racket in the 1930s, left an estate valued at $183,922, an inventory filed in Probate Court yesterday showed. Mason, 60, was killed and his wife was injured seriously in an automobile accident near London, Ohio, last March 28. Most of the property was in real estate.

Atomic Cannon On Huge Flatcar

Railroad Carrier Specially Built

By JOHN F. SEMBOWER CHICAGO—A gigantic new flatcar capable of converting the U. S. Army's famed atomic "Big Bertha" cannons into ultra-modern editions of the great rail guns of World War I, has been built here by the Rock Island railroad.

Artillerymen take great pride in the high mobility of their new weapon with its two huge motor trucks that are virtually built-in, but muddy terrain, poor or underdeveloped roads, and congested highways loomed as a limiting factor.

The new flatcar, the largest freight car of its type ever built, will enable the cannon, whose main part weighs 1,600 pounds, to be loaded aboard lock, stock and barrel, including its automotive equipment which will ride "piggy-back." The car is 58 feet long and has a depression of 21 feet, allowing it to carry exceptionally high and heavy loads. It has a 125-ton capacity and weighs 125,000 pounds itself. Pending when it and its counterparts may be drafted to transport the cannon, the Rock Island will give it practical work-outs transporting such cargo as out-size electrical transformers.

Six-wheel trucks at each end, rather than the conventional four-wheel trucks, distribute the tremendous weight load. It takes 19 men with outstretched arms to span its length. Costing $30,000 to build, it is a relatively inexpensive accessory for the atomic cannon.

THE A-CANNON weighs 42 tons and hurls an 11-inch shell, which may be either the conventional type missile or an atomic shell, with pinpoint accuracy for 20 miles. It has its own built-in recoil tracks and has to be set up on its own platform to be fired, whether it has been transported by motor truck or rail.

This technically does not remove it from the category of a "rail cannon" when it is moved on the new flatcar, however, because the original "Big Bertha" built by Germany also had to be set on their

Speeder Wants Full Credit

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP)—Maurice C. Ellis, 19, of West Townsend, charged with speeding, vigorously disputed police testimony in district court yesterday that he was doing 50 miles an hour.

He interrupted several times to insist he was doing—not 50—but 60.

Judge A. Z. Goodfellow imposed a $15 fine and commented: "The least I can say about you is that you are mighty honest."

Coach Derails

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Complete service was restored last night to the New York Central's main line through Versailles after a mail coach derailed there early yesterday. Railway officials said an axle broke on the coach, part of the crack westbound New York-St. Louis Knickerbocker. No one was injured.

3 To Testify In Probe Of Shakedowns

COLUMBUS (P)—Three liquor permit holders from Lorain are among witnesses summoned to testify today before a Franklin County grand jury investigating reported shakedowns in the state liquor department.

The three are Evelyn Cipolla, Mario Cipolla and Ann Naples. One witness was cited for contempt yesterday and placed in the county jail. He was Roosevelt Jackson, 40, of Columbus.

He left the session handcuffed only a few minutes after he entered the hearing room.

Ousted liquor enforcement inspector John L. Koevar of Cleveland was summoned yesterday. Others who testified include Frank

Baruch Guides 'Copter Pilot

BROOKVILLE, N.Y. (P)—Bernard M. Baruch, who will be 84 tomorrow, proved to be a sharp-eyed navigator yesterday during his first helicopter ride.

The financier and elder statesman flew from LaGuardia Airport to the Long Island estate of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt for a party opening a hospital benefit drive by the Long Island Industry Fund.

The pilot had trouble spotting the Vanderbilt estate, however, and circled the area. Then Baruch recognized his own home below and guided the pilot to the Vanderbilt house five miles away.

Harness Racer Hurt At Yonker

YONKERS, N. Y. (P)—Billy Houghton, the nation's leading harness racing driver, was bruised and severely shaken up last night at Yonkers Raceway when Willway struck a soft spot in the track and fell 100 yards from the finish in the seventh race.

Houghton, of Massapequa, N. Y., was the leading money winning driver of 1952 and 1953.

Panel Studies Appeal Of Former Agent

COLUMBUS (P)—An attorney for the state liquor department yesterday said former liquor enforcement agent John L. Koevar of Cleveland "thumbed his nose at the department" and stayed in hiding when officials wanted to question him about reported misconduct.

Koevar wants his job back. He was until last month supervisor of the Canton-Portsmouth district.

He was dropped from the pay roll after the department said he took unauthorized sick leave shortly after questioning about his associates on a 1952 trip to the British West Indies.

The two-day hearing on Koevar's "automatic resignation" ended yesterday before the civil service commission. A decision is expected in about two weeks.

Two Toledo men failed to appear at the commission hearing yesterday. The commission said subpoenas were mailed to them Aug. 6. The two are Roy Kerr and James Duggan, who the state says met Koevar on his trip to Antigua in the British West Indies in the spring of 1952.

Commission officials said mail service of a subpoena does not constitute a legal demand for a person's appearance to testify and that no action against Kerr and Duggan is likely. The two were unidentified further.

ATHENS, Greece (P)—Benaine carried by a passenger on Athens-Kalamata train exploded yesterday near Corinth, injuring more than 10 persons.

British Asked To Push Claims

LONDON (P)—The United States has asked Britain to take over its compensation demands against Red China for the six Americans killed and wounded in the British airliner shot down July 23 near Hainan Island, official sources said last night.

Informants said Washington has proposed that Britain lump its own compensation claims with those of the United States and present them to the Chinese Communists.

Peiping already has rejected two direct American demands for compensation, but has offered to talk over the British claims.

Ike's Initial To Start GI's Wife To U. S.

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate has passed and sent to the White House a bill to permit an Ohioan to bring his GI bride from Austria to this country, even though government doctors say she had tuberculosis.

All that remains to allow Earl Strickland, 26, to take his wife, Gertrude, 23, to Waverly, Ohio, is President Eisenhower's signature on the bill.

Strickland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strickland, say they "desperately" need the young couple to help them operate their 233-acre farm near Waverly, in Pike County.

Normally, the foreign wife of a U. S. citizen is forbidden entry into this country if she has tuberculosis.

But Joseph Strickland and his wife, Rebecca, insisted that "com-

Last Week-end Ohio's Worst For Accidents

COLUMBUS (P)—The state director of highway safety says more people were killed in traffic accidents on Ohio highways last week end than any other non-holiday weekend this year.

U. C. Felty, director of the Department of Highway Safety, said that while not all reports are in, 12 traffic fatalities have been recorded.

The Ohio Associated Press count of traffic fatalities from 6 p. m., Friday to midnight Sunday totaled 15.

When all reports are in, he said, the number may go up.

Felty said he is appealing to service clubs, civic organizations throughout Ohio to mobilize to make traffic safety a part of their regular programs. In addition, telegrams have been sent to chairmen of the nine districts in the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee urging them to step up traffic safety programs.

Wynn Gets 16th,
Ford 13th Of Year;
Margin Still 3

By The Associated Press
Maybe the American League should let Cleveland and New York go ahead and play the five games they have left with each other and get the pennant race over.

The way the Indians and Yankees are playing now they might well win all their other games anyway.

They have to use up their strength playing "crucial" series with teams mathematically eliminated from all possible chance at the title. A slipup anywhere along the line could spell the difference.

Just consider the futility of the chase. In their last 68 games — more than half of their total played to date — the second-place Yankees have gained exactly half a length on the Indians.

Here are the figures: The Yankees have won 9 in a row, 15 of their last 18, 35 of their last 43, and 52 of their last 68. But Cleveland has won 8 straight, 12 out of 13, 17 out of 20, and 51 out of 68.

Everybody with any pennant hopes left in either league won yesterday. Cleveland beat Detroit 4-0, New York defeated Philadelphia 6-1 and Chicago whipped Baltimore 4-1 in the American League. The New York Giants thumped Philadelphia 6-2, Brooklyn shaded Pittsburgh 3-2 and Milwaukee defeated St. Louis 3-1 in the National.

In the only action not involving a contender, Boston edged Washington 9-8 in 11 innings on Karl Olson's single with two out. Ted Williams went hitless in six times at bat.

Cincinnati and the Cub were rained out at Chicago. Cleveland managed only five hits off southpaw Billy Hoelt but two were home runs — by Bobby Avila with the bases empty for the first run and by Al Smith with two aboard for the other three. Early Wynn finally won his 16th game in his fourth try.

The Yankees mopped up on the lowly Athletics for the 13th time in 15 meetings. Whitey Ford turned in his seventh straight victory and his 13th of the season.

Chicago pitching continued to baffle the last-place Orioles, who have scored only twice in their last 27 innings. Sandy Consuegra, lifted in the sixth for a pinch hitter, registered his 15th success with fine relief from Dick Strahs and Harry Dorish. Don Larsen was charged with his 16th loss, tops in both leagues.

Another hunch paid off for Manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. He replaced the slumping Monte Irvin with Dusty Rhodes and the substitute outfielder belted two home runs that accounted for five runs. The night before, Durocher inserted Rhodes' roommate Bobby Hoffman and he homered twice.

The Pirates' five-game winning streak ended as relief ace Jim Hughes of the Dodgers retired the side in the ninth after two runs had scored and two men were on base.

Lefty Warren Spahn checked the Cardinals on five hits, including Stan Musial's 32nd home run. Harvey Haddix had a one-hitter working until two out in the seventh. A pop fly triple by Joe Adcock drove in the first run and he scored a moment later on a single by Andy Patko.

Caddie Golf
Tourney At Payoff Stage

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ninth National Caddie Golf Tournament hits the payoff spot today, with the eight winners of third round matches certain to share in the $5,000 scholarship fund.

Two rounds of boy-to-boy encounters are on today's slate, with the four survivors clashing over 36 holes tomorrow for a Saturday final berth. The ultimate victor gets a $1,500 scholarship, the runnerup $1,000, and the eighth-placer $150, with those in between capturing graduated awards.

In the previous eight tournaments, 35 boys from 26 cities and 12 states have split up $29,850 in scholarship funds and have attended 11 U. S. universities and one in Canada.

The red-hot favorite is still medalist Dick Hauff, the war orphan from Iran. The youth, adopted by an Arlington Heights, Ill., Army major, was even with par for Ohio State's 7,120-yard par 72 layout yesterday for the 27 holes he needed for two victories.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BATTING—Dusty Rhodes, New York Giants, hit two home runs and batted in five runs in the Giants' 6-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.
PITCHING—Early Wynn, Cleveland Indians, won his 16th game, a six-hit shutout over Detroit 4-0.

They have to use up their strength playing "crucial" series with teams mathematically eliminated from all possible chance at the title. A slipup anywhere along the line could spell the difference.

Just consider the futility of the chase. In their last 68 games — more than half of their total played to date — the second-place Yankees have gained exactly half a length on the Indians.

Here are the figures: The Yankees have won 9 in a row, 15 of their last 18, 35 of their last 43, and 52 of their last 68. But Cleveland has won 8 straight, 12 out of 13, 17 out of 20, and 51 out of 68.

Everybody with any pennant hopes left in either league won yesterday. Cleveland beat Detroit 4-0, New York defeated Philadelphia 6-1 and Chicago whipped Baltimore 4-1 in the American League. The New York Giants thumped Philadelphia 6-2, Brooklyn shaded Pittsburgh 3-2 and Milwaukee defeated St. Louis 3-1 in the National.

In the only action not involving a contender, Boston edged Washington 9-8 in 11 innings on Karl Olson's single with two out. Ted Williams went hitless in six times at bat.

Cincinnati and the Cub were rained out at Chicago. Cleveland managed only five hits off southpaw Billy Hoelt but two were home runs — by Bobby Avila with the bases empty for the first run and by Al Smith with two aboard for the other three. Early Wynn finally won his 16th game in his fourth try.

The Yankees mopped up on the lowly Athletics for the 13th time in 15 meetings. Whitey Ford turned in his seventh straight victory and his 13th of the season.

Chicago pitching continued to baffle the last-place Orioles, who have scored only twice in their last 27 innings. Sandy Consuegra, lifted in the sixth for a pinch hitter, registered his 15th success with fine relief from Dick Strahs and Harry Dorish. Don Larsen was charged with his 16th loss, tops in both leagues.

Another hunch paid off for Manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. He replaced the slumping Monte Irvin with Dusty Rhodes and the substitute outfielder belted two home runs that accounted for five runs. The night before, Durocher inserted Rhodes' roommate Bobby Hoffman and he homered twice.

The Pirates' five-game winning streak ended as relief ace Jim Hughes of the Dodgers retired the side in the ninth after two runs had scored and two men were on base.

Lefty Warren Spahn checked the Cardinals on five hits, including Stan Musial's 32nd home run. Harvey Haddix had a one-hitter working until two out in the seventh. A pop fly triple by Joe Adcock drove in the first run and he scored a moment later on a single by Andy Patko.

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ninth National Caddie Golf Tournament hits the payoff spot today, with the eight winners of third round matches certain to share in the $5,000 scholarship fund.

Two rounds of boy-to-boy encounters are on today's slate, with the four survivors clashing over 36 holes tomorrow for a Saturday final berth. The ultimate victor gets a $1,500 scholarship, the runnerup $1,000, and the eighth-placer $150, with those in between capturing graduated awards.

Tribe Hits
Trail After Double Header

CLEVELAND (AP)—During three seasons managing Cleveland clubs that were runner-up to the New York Yankees, Al Lopez often wished "we could have one long winning streak."

This was especially true last year when one home stand string of seven victories was the Tribe's best sustained effort.

Today, going into a double header with the Detroit Tigers, the Indians are sporting an eight-game winning string for the fourth time this campaign. They had a streak of 11 triumphs that ended May 23; one of nine games to June 18 and another of eight to July 5.

Early Wynn's third shutout of the season and his 16th victory, after four tries to attain it, kept the Indians three games ahead of the Yanks yesterday. All the runs the Tribe scored in winning 4-0 were driven in by home runs—a bases-empty sixth inning blow by Bob Avila and a seventh inning swat by Al Smith after a walk and Wynn's single.

Mike Garcia (15-5) and Bob Feller (10-2) hurl for the Tribe in a rare week-day double header today—the final appearance of the Tribe before a 19-game road trip.

Out to spill the Indians' fine double header record of 11 won, three split and only one lost will be Ned Garver (11-7) and Al Aber or Steve Gromek.

The 3-year-old trot was won in straight heats by Lady's First in 2:13:3 and 2:11:1. Crescent Prince owned by Gene and Guy Bock of Washington C. H. and driven by Dud Moon was fourth both heats.

Olson Picks
Self To Win
Friday Bout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—This may not be "stop the press" stuff but it is news when middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson makes an outright prediction.

In a question-and-answer interview that was practically pried out of the 160-pound kinspin, he said he expected to beat the No. 1 challenger, Rocky Castellani, in their 15-round title fight tomorrow night.

"I have trained hard and I have trained for a 15-round fight," he said.

Asked if he expected to win by a knockout or a decision, he said, "I'm ready to go 15 rounds, come what may."

He has no set plan of fight Castellani puts up.

He was asked what kind of a fight he expected the challenger to wage.

"From what I have read in the papers I expect him to try to jab and outspeed me. If that's what he does, I'll press him all the way."

Odds makers have established Olson the 4-1 favorite.

The bout will be nationally televised (except for a San Francisco blackout within a 100-mile radius from the San Francisco Cow Palace) by NBC.

Starting time will be 9 p. m. EST.

Most observers think the pulverizing body beatings Olson hands out will win him the fight. But Castellani followers see the former Luzerne, Pa., coalminer, now a Cleveland resident, as a winner due to his flashing speed.

Rocky's left jab is superior. He moves in and out and around the ring faster than Bobo. He probably is the harder hitter with a right hand.

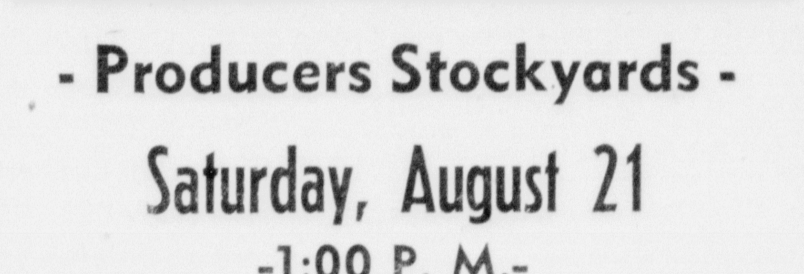

Gavilan Sued
By Ex-Counsel

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight champion York Gavilan and George Gainford, who once worked in his corner, have parted ways and Gainford is suing Gavilan for $150,000.

The suit has been filed in Supreme Court, with Gainford claiming his "advice and counsel" helped Gavilan win the title. He said he was signed in 1947 to advise, counsel and create bookings for Gavilan at 10 per cent of the fighter's earnings.

Thrill Comics Are Now Banned In Circleville

Officials Supported
In Clean-up Move
By Civic Leaders

News stands and stores in Circleville and Pickaway County which sell magazines today had 30 days to check their stock and clean out all the "comic books" which deal in filth and crime in the guise of adventure.

The ban against the fake funnies and thrill comics was imposed by a group of city and county officials and civic leaders as the climax of several months of study.

Speaking for the group, Pickaway County Prosecutor William Ammer, called attention to the heavy penalties already provided by law for those selling the fake variety of cartoon funnies. He said all magazine dealers in Circleville and Pickaway County were expected to give wholehearted cooperation in the clean-up movement, but added: "If we have to invoke the law, we will."

Ammer was chosen as spokesman for a group which also included Juvenile Court Judge George D. Young, Pickaway County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff, Circleville Police Chief Elmer Merriam, Mayor Robert Hedges of Circleville, and Ed Grigg and Vaden Couch, both of Circleville Rotary Club.

The seven-man group met this week to complete its study of the "comic book" menace as it is found in the Circleville area.

THE PROBLEM has been recognized for a long time on the national level and has led many other communities to take action against sale of the dime thrillers. Local aspects of the "comic book" craze were spotlighted earlier this year by a series of articles carried in The Herald.

Circleville Rotary immediately indicated support for any action taken. And fake "comics" were subsequently denounced by the Pontious Evangelical United Brethren Church, Calvary EUB Church, and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

It was known the matter has been under official scrutiny here since that time. Ammer's announcement for the group was in effect an official warning to all those who have been selling the books in this district.

CODE UPON which the group took action says in part that:

"No person shall knowingly sell, lend, give away, exhibit or offer to sell, lend, give away, or exhibit or have in his possession, or under his control an obscene lewd or lascivious book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture film, or magazine not wholly obscene but containing lewd or lascivious articles... or drawings or... sell, give away, or show to a minor, a book, pamphlet, magazine, newspaper, story paper, or other paper devoted to the publication, or principally made up, of criminal news, police reports, or accounts of criminal deeds, or pictures and stories of immoral deeds, lust or crime, or... exhibit... in a place which may be within the view of a minor, any of such books, papers, magazines, or pictures..."

Wayne 4-H Picnic Held for Parents

The annual parents' party of the Wayne Progressive Farmers 4-H Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Woods. Each year the members give the party for their parents in appreciation for making their projects possible.

Among the 50 guests this year were Albert Cobb, associate county agent, who gave a short talk. A special guest, Yonatan Isaac of Iran, spoke on customs and home life in his country and answered members' and guests' questions. After the meal of hamburgers, baked beans, potato salad, watermelon and pop, Vice President Roger Bonham led a business meeting.

Nancy McFadden welcomed the guests, and Mrs. Walter Orr represented the guests in thanking the club.

Firemen Sling Mud To Save Coal Car

Firemen tried an unusual method to put out a fire Wednesday evening, and it worked.

At 7:25 P. M., a call came in that a B&O coal car was smoking on a spur of the Pennsylvania Railroad behind the Midland Grocery Co. The Fire Department investigated and found that a bearing box in one of the car's trucks was afire.

They put out the fire in eight minutes—using water from a mud puddle.

IN THE FUTURE, 3-year-old Dora Marks will quit mixing her drinks and stick to what she's shown with—milk. The Pittsburgh miss got hold of some acetone her father used for mending glasses, and decided to have a short snort. A rush to hospital for stomach pumping followed. (International)

Former Italian Premier Dies

Heart Attack Fatal
To Alcide de Gasperi

SELLA VAL SUGANA, Italy (AP)—Alcide de Gasperi, the lean old statesman who led Italy out of postwar chaos and onto the path of democracy, died today of a heart attack.

Death came to the former Premier as he rested here in his north Italy mountain retreat, far from Rome and the political wars in which he had battled without respite for nearly a decade.

His passing robbed the cause of European union of one of its staunchest supporters. Italy's struggle against communism lost one of its hardest fighters.

Although it was known the 73-year-old leader's health was failing, there had been no public hint he was seriously ill. Only after his death was it revealed that he had suffered a heart attack a week ago. His condition was not considered serious until Tuesday, when the heart pains became more intense.

He suffered another attack at 2 a. m. today and died an hour later after still another seizure. His family was at his bedside.

DE GASPERI had stepped down from the titular leadership of his pro-Western, middle-of-the-road Christian Democrat party—Italy's largest—a little more than a month ago.

He ended his 7 1/2 years as head of the Italian government a year ago, in July 1953, after losing a confidence vote in the Italian Parliament. But his party supplied succeeding cabinets and a protégé of De Gasperi, former Interior Minister Mario Scelba, now holds the premiership.

A messenger brought the news of the death before dawn to Scelba and the Premier hurried from his own vacation spot, Fuggi, to the scene of the death of his old mentor.

Known in the troublesome early days of the Italian republic as the master of political compromise, De Gasperi changed later to become a two-fisted foe of the growing menace of communism.

The tall, hawk-faced leader first became premier in December 1945 because he was leader of Italy's biggest party. A noted anti-Fascist imprisoned often by Mussolini, he had served since the previous April as foreign minister.

IN HIS FIRST two years as premier he tried to work with his nation's Communists and fellow-traveling Socialists, but in the spring of 1947 abandoned the effort and in the 1948 elections inflicted a smashing defeat on the Reds.

For five years after that he fought the Reds at every turn, battling to keep his nation closely allied with the United States and the anti-Communist West, pushing the cause of European unity.

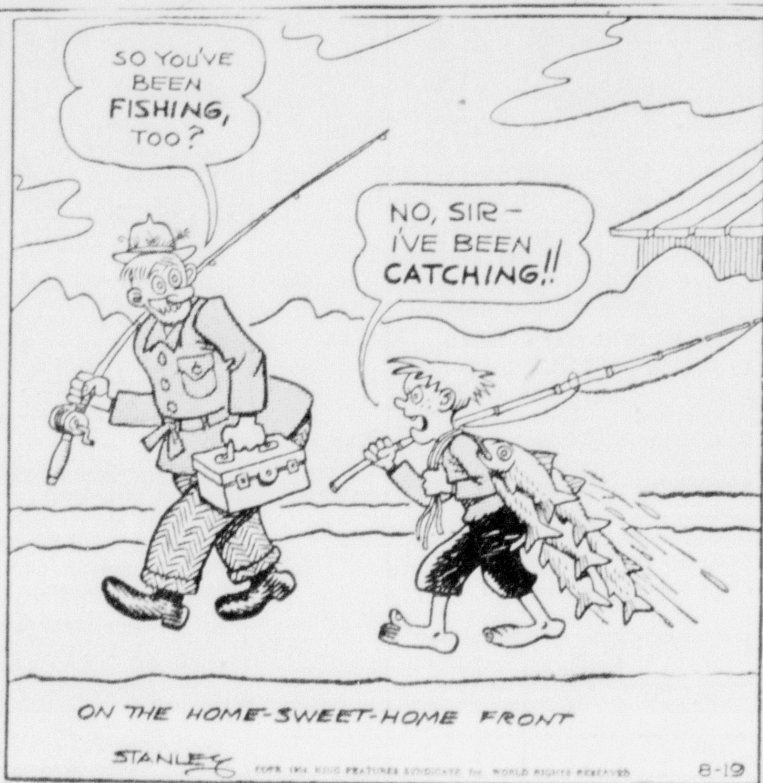

In 1949 he brought Italy into the North Atlantic alliance against Communist aggression as a charter member.

The Schuman coal-steel plan, the Council of Europe and the six-nation European army all received his enthusiastic support.

Honoring his pioneer work, the Coal-Steel Assembly last May elected him its president. Ironically, he died only a few hours before the foreign ministers of Italy and the five other nations of the projected European Defense Community gathered in Brussels at a meeting which may mean the death of the long-cherished international army plan.

U. S. Recalls Four Divisions

100,000 Koreans
Parade In Protest

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will pull two thirds of its ground strength out of Korea in the next few months in carrying out a new military strategy to mount a flexible defense against Communist China and at the same time build up a central strategic reserve at home.

In the largest peacetime redeployment of American forces, announced yesterday, four full divisions will be withdrawn from Korea. Two divisions and smaller units will return to the United States, and Okinawa and Hawaii will be strengthened by one division each.

Immediate protests were launched in South Korea. All shops were closed and public transportation halted in Seoul during a protest rally which drew an estimated 100,000 persons to the city stadium.

Although two fewer divisions will be left in the western Pacific, defense officials interpreted the move as completely in step with President Eisenhower's clear-cut warning Tuesday against any Red attempt to invade Chinese Nationalist-held Formosa.

THE NEW military thinking lays increased stress upon flexibility and the importance of the western Pacific defense line running from the Philippines in the south through Nationalist Formosa and Okinawa to Japan.

The strategy implies a strong U. S. determination to avoid fighting another major war strictly within the limits of the Korean peninsula.

When the troop reshuffling has been completed, probably next year, America's military lines will shape up like this:

Two U. S. divisions will remain in Korea to support a South Korean army now made up of 20 divisions and to be strengthened by additional American assistance. The British Commonwealth Division and smaller units from other Allied nations also remain in Korea.

Okinawa, now a major air base, is garrisoned by one Army regimental combat team, about 5,000 strong. The new emphasis upon the importance of that island won from Japan in World War II will send a full division to Okinawa, probably the 1st Marine Division now in Korea. That Marine division and its supporting ground units and air wing is the most powerful single military unit now in the Far East.

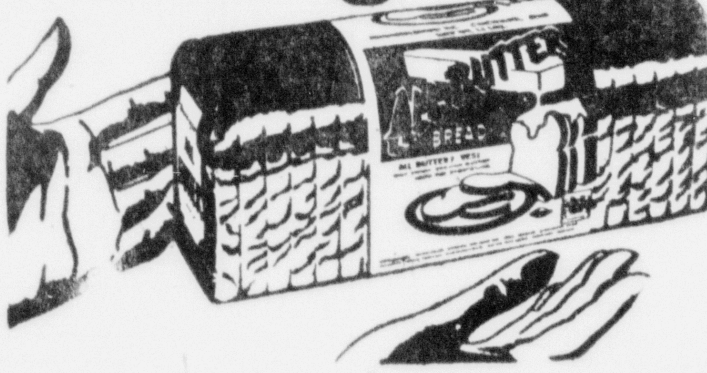

FORMOSA, as Eisenhower noted, would be guarded by the U. S. 7th Fleet, which has been under orders to defend the island since the outbreak of the Korean War.

In Japan, where U. S. ground forces now include the Army's 1st Cavalry Division, the 3rd Marine Division and the 187th Army Regimental Combat Team, Army officials thought it likely the 1st Cavalry and the combat team would be among the units to come back to the United States. The 3rd Marine Division was expected to remain in Japan, for the time being at least, and one of the Army divisions to be pulled out of Korea may replace the cavalry.

Dies Of Polio

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Andrew W. Wanner, 36, an Alliance, Ohio, factory worker, died of infantile paralysis yesterday in Children's hospital. There have been 87 polio cases treated at children's hospital this year—40 of them from Summit County. That compares with 68 during a like period of 1953. At Youngstown, where 17 polio patients are under treatment, Dennis Lowry, 7, of Salem died of the disease yesterday.

Commercial Hog Show Set Here

Specialists Are To Explain Selections

Plans for the commercial swine show to be held at the Union Stockyards here Friday morning, today were complete, except possibly for the usual last-minute details.

Albert G. Cobb, of the Extension Service, who has been one of the moving spirits behind the annual event, predicted there would be 15 to 20 hogs in the show, which is slated to get under way about 9:30 A. M.

Last year there were around 60 breeders and feeders at the show and Cobb expressed the belief that there would be "at least that many, and probably more," at the show Friday.

The show is sponsored by the Fayette County Swine Breeders and Feeders Association. Its primary purpose is to turn the spotlight on the meat type hog for the breeders and feeders of the community. Cobb commented that Fayette County breeders and feeders, especially the breeders, were among the first in the country to turn their attention to developing a meat type hog in line with the changing public demand for more meat and less lard. Cobb observed as a sort of sidelight that nearly all hog feeders in Fayette County also are hog breeders, who raise their own pigs for feeding.

THIS WILL be the fourth show of this kind. The judges will be Joe Stuckey of Clinton County and Herbert Barnes and Wilbur Bruner of Ohio State University.

Cobb said the judges would not only select the champion, but also would explain the reasons for their selection. This amounts to a lesson in judging hogs that is invaluable to a breeder and the farmer picking out feeding pigs, Cobb said.

Cobb made it plain that the hogs in the Friday show would be what are known as "commercial" hogs and that their breeding and pedigrees are important only as they relate to the development of the meat type hog.

After the show the hogs are to be sold at auction. This, Cobb said, will give the breeders and feeders a chance to see how buyers for packers appraise the hogs—something important to the farmer who sells hogs for market.

Fire Destroys 2,000 Animals

MONTREAL (AP)—A two-hour fire destroyed a hog and sheep stable in the Montreal Stockyards last night, killing some 2,000 squealing animals awaiting slaughter and causing damage estimated at more than a million dollars.

Firemen feared the heat-madened hogs, sheep and calves inside the two-story brick building would escape and run berserk through the yards but the building collapsed on top of them.

CIO Loses

WILLARD, Ohio (AP)—The CIO United Rubber Workers lost a recognition vote today at the Pioneer Rubber Co. in plants here and at nearby Attica. In balloting supervised by the National Labor Relations Board, Pioneer production workers turned down the union's attempt to win collective bargaining recognition by a vote of 342 to 55. Pioneer, which manufactures rubber gloves and toy balloons, has about 100 non-production workers not affected by the vote.

Berserk Man Slays Three

HARLAN, Ky. (AP)—An unemployed timberman shot and killed his mother-in-law and sister-in-law, wounded his young daughter and another sister-in-law and then killed himself with a bullet in the head last night.

Officers said Malcolm Stewart, 34, apparently went berserk at Cawood after brooding over loss of his job and his inability to find living quarters suitable to his wife. Cawood, a town of around 2,000 population, is 10 miles south of Harlan.

Slain were Mrs. Lizzie Grubbs, 65, Stewart's mother-in-law, and Mrs. Mary Grubbs Strickland, 24, a sister-in-law. Both were shot in the back with a .38-caliber automatic pistol.

General Moves Up On U.N. Team

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Brig. Gen. C. Stanton Babcock, 50-year-old veteran of war in the Pacific and diplomacy in the United Nations, moved into the No. 3 post of the permanent U.S. delegation to the U.N. today.

Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. named Babcock to succeed John C. Ross, member of the American delegation since 1946. Ross resigned, Lodge said, because of urgent family and personal reasons but agreed to stay on until Oct. 15 as a delegation consultant.
